EEEEEEK!

A labor of love,
however I'm grossing out.
It's my party line.
And I am the party.

It reminds me of the western-front in 1918, Fuhrer.
We like the way.
The order must be established.

Let's talk about the great city of Shanghai, and our revenue.

.....A real maritime customs in future.

You said you have the best plan of "the surprise attack with quick mobilization". Now, I'm all ears.

Starting secret conscription of 300,000 men in around the Chang-Jiang river. And you order 'em to go up north. Japanese residents in Shandong peninsula might call for help to Tokyo.

But Tokyo could not meet it undoubtedly. Japan is in time of peace, and they have a democratic assembly which we had abandoned.

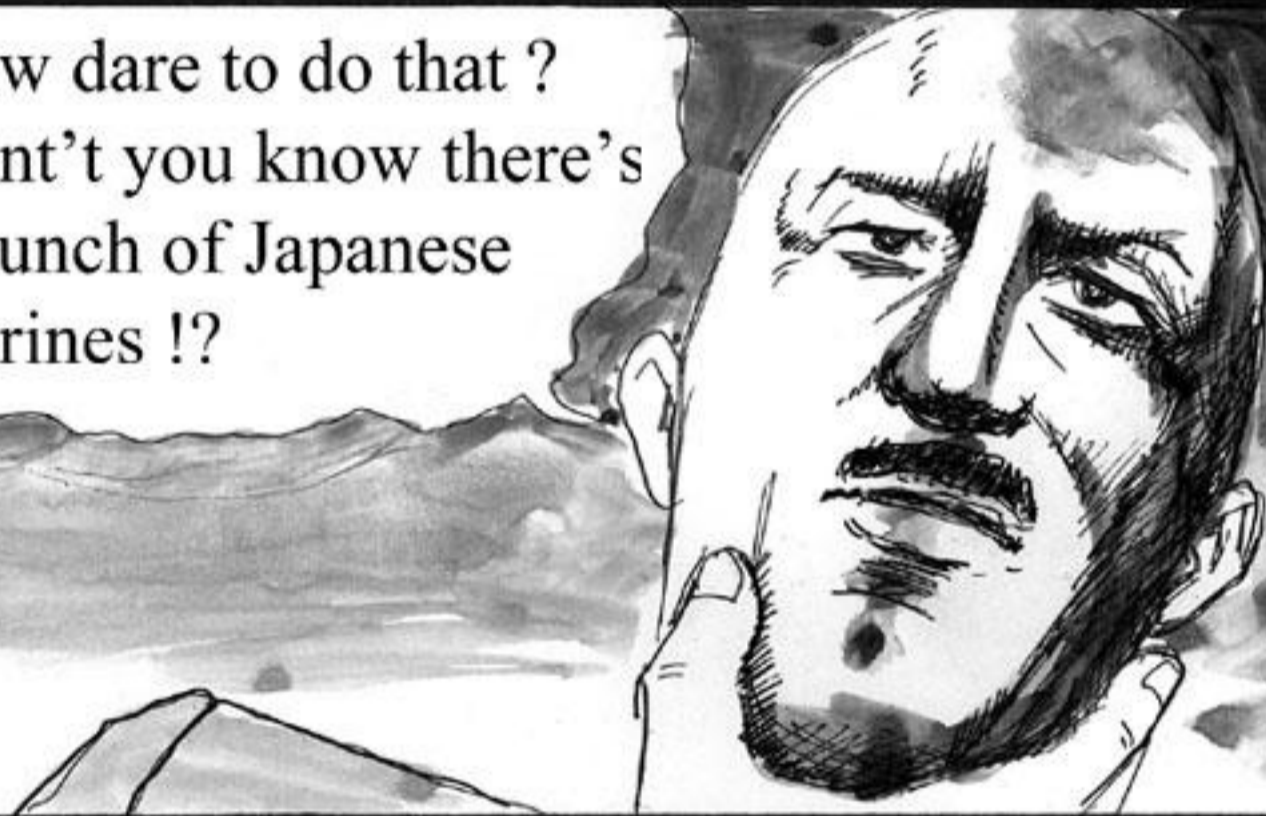

Slaughter in Quingtao ?

A diversionary tactic, of course. That's the imposition move and we are going to come upon Japanese Settlement in Shanghai !

How dare to do that ? Dont't you know there's a bunch of Japanese marines !?

Only 5,000 sailors in maximum estimation. We encircle them by 300,000 men, and charge 'em by 50,000 your hand picked storming forces, Fuhrer.

Including civilians, no Japanese will leftover in Shanghai in literally. All of 'em have to be extincted naturally.
